“Towards A Brave New World”
Rebuilding Europe after Napoleon
1815-1853
Conference Program
8–9 April 2022

THURSDAY 7 APRIL | 12:00 – 14:30 EST / 18:00 – 20:30 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS
Beatrice de Graaf, Utrecht University

SECURITY HISTORY NETWORK LAUNCH
Ozan Ozavci and Erik de Lange, Utrecht University

KEYNOTE SPEECH
Glenda Sluga, University of Sydney/European Institute Florence

FRIDAY 8 APRIL

PANEL 1 | 12:00 – 13:30 EST / 18:00 – 19:30 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session

Chair: Alexander Mikaberidze, Louisiana State University-Shreveport

Le Congrès Danse Beaucoup
Daniel R. Quiroga Villamarin, Graduate Institute Geneva

Hegel and the Constitutional Question in Post-Napoleonic Europe
Elias Buchetmann, University of Rostock

Revolutionary Conservatives after 1815
Matthijs Lok, University of Amsterdam

PANEL 2 | 13:45 – 15:15 EST / 19:45 – 21:15 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session

Chair: Glenda Sluga, University of Sydney/European Institute Florence
Britain, the Two Sicilies and the Congress System (1815-1822)
Giuseppe Grieco, University of London/ Fondazione Luigi Einaudi

Guarding Ireland, Guarding Empire
Ciarán McDonnell, independent researcher

European States and the Case of Neutral Mresnet
Steven Press, Stanford University

KEYNOTE SPEECH | 15:30 EST / 21:30 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session
Elise K. Wirtschafter, California State Polytechnic University

SATURDAY 9 APRIL

PANEL 3 | 08:00 – 09:30 EST / 14:00 – 15:30 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session

Chair: Erik de Lange, Utrecht University

The Convention of Aix-la-Chapelle, September 9 – December 15, 1818
Thomas Zacharis, Independent scholar

Policing political subversion in central Europe after 1815: the case of Philhellenism
Christos Aliprantis, Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich

Doubtful Wars: How a Band of Foreign Troublemakers Joined Spanish Civil Wars and Sparked a Crises over the Law of Nations (1816-1821)
Ignacio Rodríguez Álvarez, University of Alcalá

PANEL 4 | 09:45 – 11:45 EST / 15:45 – 17:45 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session

Chair: Beatrice de Graaf, Utrecht University

The foreigner and the drifter: The Gendarmerie and the attempt to limit movement in 19th century Germany
Zef Segal, The Open University of Israel

Channelled antagonism or fruitful cooperation? The Military Commission of the German Confederation and the negotiation about the Rastatt fortress in the 1840s
Frank Rochow, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

Post-Napoleonic Security in British North America
    Christopher Radojewski, Independent scholar

From Cosmopolitan Connectivity to Official Nationalism: The Use of Parallax in Conservative State Building in Russia (1815-1855)
    Lien Verpoest, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven

 BREAK ***

11:45 – 13:00

PANEL 5 | 13:00 – 14:30 EST / 19:00 – 20:30 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session

Chair: Ozan Ozavci, Utrecht University

The European Project of Louis-Philippe, Duke of Orléans
    Silvio Berardi, Niccolò Cusano University of Rome

Purchasing liberty with trans-imperial rivalry?
    Joep Schenk, Utrecht University

An Army of Many: The 1830 Invasion of Algiers as a Multinational Endeavour
    Erik de Lange, Utrecht University

CLOSING KEYNOTE SPEECH | 14:45 EST / 20:45 CEST
Click here to join Zoom session
Alexander Mikaberidze, Louisiana State University-Shreveport
Evangelos (Aggelis) Zarokostas, University of Bristol